Such requests shall state the purpose of the meeting and notice thereof shall be given as provided in Section E of this Article. No business other than that stated in the notice of the meeting shall be transacted at any special meeting, unless agreed to by a majority vote of those at the meeting.

Section E. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

Notice of the annual, or special meeting of the Executive Board or Executive Board and Advisory Board shall be mailed to each individual in a timely manner, not less than five (5) days before the date of such meeting. Such notice shall state the place, date, and time of the meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the business proposed to be transacted.

Section F. MANNER OF CONDUCTING MEETINGS

The Executive Board may meet at such place and time as they select. They may hold meetings with individuals being “present” by telephone conference or similar electronic communications equipment. Notwithstanding the other provisions of these bylaws, meetings may be held as decided by the Executive Board, without written notice, if Executive Board members present, agree to the meeting by a majority vote. Notwithstanding the other provisions of these bylaws, meetings of the Executive Board and Advisory Board may be held as decided by the Executive Board, without written notice, if Executive Board members present, agree to the meeting by a majority vote.

Section G. QUORUM

At any meeting of the Executive Board or the Executive Board and the Advisory Board, a majority of the members is sufficient for a quorum. If a quorum is absent, a majority vote of those present may adjourn the meeting.

Section H. VACANCIES

Any vacancy occurring in the Executive Board, by reason of death, resignation, removal, or other cause shall be filled by a majority vote of the Executive Board. A person elected by the Executive Board shall be elected for the unexpired term of the office.

Section I. REMOVAL

Any officer, elected or appointed, may be removed by the Executive Board whenever, in its judgment, the best interest of the organization would be served. Such removal will be initiated by any member of the Executive Board, but must have the approval of the Executive Board by a majority vote. Such removal shall be without prejudice. An officer may not vote on his/her own removal, but may speak on his/her own behalf.

Section J. COMMITTEES

The President may pass a resolution to designate one (1) or more committees with one or more Executive Board members each. Members of the organization may be designated to serve on such committees. These committees serve at the pleasure of the President and Executive Board and report directly to the President.

ARTICLE VIII. STATE CHAPTERS

States can petition, in writing, to the national Executive Board for a NADDI state chapter. A majority vote of the national Executive Board, is required to establish a state chapter. The national Executive Board may approve several bordering states in a region to form a state chapter; or may merge bordering state chapters to form a unified state chapter. The requirements of a state chapter are:

1. A minimum of twenty-five (25) members in good standing are verified by the Treasurer. The state chapter maintains a minimum of twenty-five (25) members at all times. Should a state chapter fall below the minimum membership requirement, the national President and national Executive Board shall notify the state chapter of a one-year probationary period for that state chapter to meet minimum membership requirements. If after the probationary period the state chapter has not attained the minimum membership requirement, that state chapter shall lose its state chapter status and all benefits afforded to it. Any monies remaining in the state treasury shall be forfeited to the national treasury.
2. The initial state officers are appointed by the national President. The members of the chapter shall elect the officers of their respective chapters in each odd-numbered year. Only members who have been members in good standing for two (2) consecutive years are eligible as nominees to be officers in the state chapter unless a waiver is approved by the national Executive Board.

The election process shall be conducted under the direction of the national Executive Board. Chapter members will be notified in each election year, indicating the opening and closing dates of the nomination process. Election of officers will require a minimum of 50% participation in the voting process of the active members of the chapter; in the absence of 50% participation the national Executive Board will appoint the officer(s).

3. The President of the state chapter will be a voting member of the National Advisory Board.

4. A treasury is established with a state chapter treasury account in the name of NADDI of (insert state) with all records maintained at the state level according to the state chapter bylaws. The Treasurer shall be responsible for and have charge and custody of all state chapter funds; deposit all such monies in the name of the state chapter in an insured depository; prepare year-end financial reports, or as requested by the Executive Board. The state Treasurer, state President, and national Treasurer shall have signatory powers for the state chapter monetary accounts and shall have mutual access to the state chapter accounts.

5. The state chapter shall not operate in contradiction to the national bylaws or Articles of Incorporation. State chapters shall establish bylaws as directed by the National Executive Board.

6. All member dues will be divided between the state chapter and the national organization at a rate determined by the national Executive Board. All local fundraising proceeds will be retained by the state chapter.

7. The state chapters shall submit an annual report to the national Executive Board, noting accomplishments and goals of the state chapter. This report shall be submitted, in writing, thirty (30) days before the annual training conference.

8. The treasurer of the state chapter will provide the national Treasurer with a treasurer's report and a copy of a recent bank statement supporting the amount of funds on hand contained in the treasurer's report, at least (30) days prior to the annual national Executive Board and Advisory Board meeting.

9. Each state chapter President is required to attend the joint meeting of the national Executive Board and Advisory Board at the annual conference. In the event that the state chapter President is unable to attend, the Vice President may attend in his/her place, any other substitution must be approved by the national President.

10. A state chapter conducting a NADDI training seminar or meeting identified as a NADDI event or offering complimentary NADDI membership, must coordinate the event with the national Executive Board before confirming and/or advertising the event. The state chapter must gain approval for all speakers and topics to be considered for the agenda. The state chapter must also provide information pertaining to the date, location, and a copy of the agenda for the training or meeting at least 90 days prior to advertising the event.

11. Any state chapter conducting a training seminar(s) will utilize a registration process approved by the national Executive Board; the process must meet the basic standards for appropriate information gathering and fee processing to maintain accurate membership records.

Any state chapter conducting a training seminar which includes a NADDI registration fee must forward a check equal to the amount of registration fee's collected to the national Treasurer within fourteen (14) days of the training seminar along with the corresponding registration information.

12. The national Executive Board maintains the right to discipline or revoke state chapter status if the state chapter violates the state or national bylaws, or does not uphold the principles, objectives, or reputation of NADDI. Discipline or revocation shall be by a majority vote of the national Executive Board.

13. In the event that a state chapter is suspended or dissolved, all assets shall be forfeited to national NADDI.

ARTICLE IX. RULES OF PROCEDURE

When not otherwise provided by the bylaws, the business of the organization shall be conducted in accordance with the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

ARTICLE X. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS
